

BIENVENIDO

Evaluation Comments
Bienvenido Facilitator Training
Northeastern Center, Inc.
April 17 & 18, 2008

Location: Indiana Government Center South, Indianapolis, IN Trainer: Gilberto Pérez Jr., MSW, ACSW, QMHP

What were the positive aspects of the training?

- The training was very interactive. He gave us the opportunity to participate. It was fun and educating.
- The easy progress in which the lessons flow into each other and make absolute sense.
- Materials presented, Logic model.
- Very prepared trainer.
- Good communication and interaction.
- Duration of the program (2 days was a good amount).
- Lots of energy, varied activities.
- Information and support available.
- The training was excellent.

What were the weaknesses of the training?

- Not as much time spent learning each lesson.
- Could have spent a little more time on lessons.
- No lunch provided, not enough time.

What did I learn most from the training?

- How to implement and help for the Latino community
- The ability to implement a program with little resources – and strong need for collaboration.
- The different traits, risks, and strengths of the Hispanic family, immigrant
- There are different ways to present the information from the manual.
- I learned a lot about community work.
- I don't use Spanish very much so I gained from being immersed in the language for 2 days.
- How immigration/accluturation really affects immigrants, especially since laws to deport are getting tougher.
- Opportunity to help community in many ways.
- The manual is another tool to use with clients.

What changes do you recommend?

- Show director's the short term gains and long term gains of the Bienvenido Program.
- Chocolate.
- Re-enactment of each lesson.

Additional comments

- It provided me with some networks.
- It was well informed.
- Coke products.
- Keep up the good work and thanks for sharing your program.
- Possibly invite supervisors or director's to the next training.
